

WABA Professional Women in Building Membership Application 2021

An NAHB organization chartered in 1978 as the Women's Council, the Professional Women in Building is affiliated with the Home Builders Association at the local, state, and national level.

The Professional Women in Building is an organization dedicated to supporting the professional development of women in the construction industry. Serving more than 2,800 members nationally, the Professional Women in Building consists of women and men who are NAHB members (builders and associates).

MEMBERSHIP AND DUES:

As a WABA Professional Women in Building Council member (WPWB), the dues are $100 annually and to be paid to the WPWB Council, which includes $50 for local membership and $50 for national membership to the NAHB Professional Women in Building Council. Dues are set on an anniversary basis, so that members receive a full year's membership value for their money. Dues also include a subscription to the magazine of the NAHB Professional Women in Building.
